

I had to rely on the subtitles !!!

Carl	I've just seen the latest movie from China.
Vera	Good ?
Carl	Oh yes. It was about a family who lived in the late Qing dynasty.
Vera	I know you're learning Chinese. Did you understand everything ?
Carl	No, not really. They spoke too fast for me to catch much, so I had to rely on the subtitles.
Vera	Yes, they're always very helpful when you're watching a foreign-language movie.

Explanation :

Subtitles - Subtitles are the printed translation that you can read at the bottom of the screen when you are watching a foreign film.

Example : The dialogue is in Spanish, with English subtitles.
